SPENCER NEWS

SPENCER

Again Spencer has demonstrated her ability to go "over the top". At the patriotic entertainment Saturday evening about $58,000 was subscribed to purchase Liberty Bonds. The entertainment was given by the school, assisted by local talent. Every number on the program was fine, and from a patriotic standpoint fairly made your hair stand on end.

Rev. Martindale of Cleveland delivered a very clever and patriotic address, which brought forth great applause and appealed to our heart-strings and purse strings. Anyway we went "over the top" and the fellow who didn't do his share, we haven't seen yet.

The Baptist society reported that at their dinner that was held at Charles Breyley's sale, they took in $25.35.

We are sorry to hear of Hugh Scott's death. He was killed in action.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Voght, Miss Sanford, and Mr. Kuntz of Akron, Mrs. Will Taylor, Mrs. Frank Matt and Mrs. Van Hying of Barberton, were at G. W. Betz's Sunday.

Paul Freeman of Ann Arbor, Mich., spent the week-end with friends in Spencer.

William Lee and wife of Wadsworth visited Herman Hyde and wife one day last week.

An account of the W. C. T. U. annual convention held here on Sept. 26 and 27, will be found on page 1.

An all-day "Harvest Meeting" was held at the Church of the Brethren on Sept. 21. Rev. McFadden of near Wooster, preached in the forenoon and assisted in the afternoon exercises. A collection for the Belgian sufferers' fund was taken, amounting to about $27.00.

The Chatham township convention was held at the Church of the Brethren Sunday afternoon and evening, Sept. 29, with good attendance and interesting meeting. Rev. Sargent of Chicago, assisted in convention and delivered a lecture Sunday evening after convention which was very interesting. He also preached Sunday forenoon and Monday and Tuesday evenings. He is working in the interest of the Bethany Bible school of Chicago. A lunch was served at both Harvest meeting and convention, and Beulah Woods gave readings. Very interesting essays were read by Emma Webber and Enos Nolt and another one read by Mrs. Wideman.

Word was received by Mrs. F. S. Fisher, Wednesday morning that her nephew, Arthur J. Holmes of Coraopolis, Pa., was killed in action in France, Aug. 26. Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Fisher's mother, has 7 grandsons who have enlisted in the marines and this in the first casualty.

Rev. Shoemaker and wife are spending a few days with relatives in Sycamore.

While acting as substitute on route No. 2 from Spencer, Rev. Bennett had the misfortune of losing his watch supposedly near Chatham. Who ever finds it will confer a great favor by notifying Rev. Bennett at Spencer.

Editorial

It is not our intention by any means to keep pestering the public for money, except for something which we believe will be a benefit to every one.

The next thing on the program is the lecture course, and the members of the high school are selling the tickets.

We have a fine course ordered and it will be worth your time to attend, for besides entertaining a course of this kind is instructive.

This year we have a better and different course from any that has ever been here before. Five good numbers for only one dollar, if you buy a season ticket, and you are saving money if you do get one for monthly opportunity. Use this one will not present itself for some time to come.

Class and School Notes

The Juniors and Seniors have regained their popularity, to some extent, because the Stamp Bulletin this week read thus:

Miss Stroup's room, fifth and sixth grades, again carried off the honors. Their sales amounted to $198.20.

Miss Handwork's room, grades three and four, was second. Their sales totaled $140.00.

Miss Summer's room, Juniors and Seniors, was third, sales amounting to $61.00.

Miss Morrell's room, grades seven and eight, was fourth, with $41.10 sold.

Mrs. Hartinger's room, Freshmen and Sophomores, was fifth. Their sales amounted to $23.25.

Miss Shaw's room, grades one and two was sixth, selling $1.50, making a total for the week of $526.13; total for last year, $384.20; grand total, $910.33.

Why not take the Juniors for an example. Every boy and girl in the Junior class is the proud possessor of Thrift Stamps, and every boy and girl of the girls in the class own a Liberty Bond.

The lecture course contest is on and when any one comes to your door asks them if they belong to the scarlet side and, if so, you'd better buy a ticket.

Parents are welcome to come and hear the first literary given by the Freshmen and Sophomores, this Friday, at the school building.

It surely pays to have a good spelling lesson. Some one had to spell in the cloak room this week.

Parents need not fear that students will neglect their studies for athletics, for it has been understood that unless our grades are above passing, we cannot enter any games.

For the lecture course contest the high school and teachers have been divided thus:

Scarlet--Oliver Awkerman, Frank Brown, Herman Friend, Russell Mantz, Esther Sanders, Cecil Wolf, Santa Broward, Quintin Dickason, Alice Hayes, Robert Miller, Carleton Breyley, Wreatha Brouse, Graydon Griggs, Ruth Roberts, Edna Walters, Merlin Bement, Faye Beymer, Mary Eglin, Wm. Fetzer, Gladys Brown, Jeanott Garra, Helen Rudd, Seth Nichols, Rose Weidrick, Miss Handwork, Miss Stroup, Mrs. Hartinger.

Grays--Clement Auble, Marion Brouse, Clyde Dague, Hubert Mantz, Walter Roy, Bertha Storm, Linnie Aldrich, Roy Brouse, Grace Gallatin, Carrie Jacoba, Lloyd Lechleitner, Laura Fuller, Jennie Knoch, Charles Walters, Morris Weidrick, Violet Awkerman, Walter Ellis, Mays Falconer, Mabel Mantz, Agnes Strong, Martha Winters, Dene Regal, Trissie Wood, Miss Morrell, Miss Shaw, Miss Summer, Mr. Hartinger.

On the first morning the Scarlet side was in the lead with the Gray close behind.

Our county superintendent, Mr. D. W. Pearce, visited the school Tuesday.

—Rose Weidrick, Junior.

OUR BOYS

Seven more stars to the field of white. We've come to add to our flag so bright.

Seven more lads from our little band. Have gone to serve for their native land.

Gone to join those gone before. To defend our homes and native shore. To fight for freedom, truth and right. To keep the stars in "Old Glory" bright.

Our Spencer boys we are proud of you. And proud of our flag with stars of blue.

That stands as a sign of the boys so brave. Who have gone to the land across the wave. So with hope all strong, tho our hearts are sad.

We add these stars for the other lads; God bless them all and keep them true. Those lads who stand for the stars of blue.

God keep them all by Thy mighty power; May they all return to the land of ours.

When the victory is won and the wrong made right. When they all come home with "Old Glory" bright.

Then we'll all gather 'round with songs of joy. To welcome home our soldier boys.

—Ruth Roberts.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Hattie Jane Miller, a daughter of the late John and Mary C. Warren, was born in Buffalo, N. Y., October 2, 1852. She came to Lodi with her parents in 1872, since which time she has lived in Lodi and vicinity.

On July 15, 1874, she was married to Henry E. Miller. To this union four children were born; Grace W. Knapp, Nettie C., Eunice E., and Harry C. all of whom are living.

She is also survived by four sisters, Mary E. Wickham, Jennie W. Franks, Fannie S. Drake and Elizabeth Warren two sisters and two brothers having preceded her.

She passed away at her home in Lodi Tuesday morning, Sept. 17, 1918.

Funeral services were held Thursday, conducted by Rev. B. V. Tippet.

DISPERSION SALE

To be held at the residence of H. L. Matt, 2 1-2 miles south of Valley City and 1 1-2 miles north of Lester, and about 7 miles northwest of Medina, O., on TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1918 at 10 a. m., of the Haulk & Matt herd of 28 registered Holsteins, which is headed by a son of Pontiac Korndyke.

This herd contains 26 females, which includes 18 granddaughters of Pontiac Korndyke, 16 of which are daughters of our own herd sire, and two of which are daughters of Beryl Pontiac Korndyke, formerly owned by the late Mr. T. D. Phelon of Wellington.

The last two mentioned are fine young cows of high milking qualities, and they have five daughters from our own bull which are included in this sale. This combination of breeding gives them 37 1-2 per cent. of the blood of Pontiac Korndyke. All of the older females and about one-half of the heifers are bred to our herd sire and will freshen during the fall and winter. About one-half of the younger heifers are not bred.

The Herd Sire, Korndyke Aaggie Johanna No. 129163, is a son of Pontiac Korndyke and is one of the young est sons of that great sire. He was born Mar. 21, 1913; he is nearly white in color and is as active and virile and as sure a breeder as a yearling, and is kind to handle. He is a fine individual and an excellent dairy type. Any breeder or group of breeders could not do better than to purchase this bull to head a good herd of pure-bred females, and remember, Mr. Breeder, that in securing this excellent young sire, that you are getting a half brother to all of the great sons of Pontiac Korndyke, such as King of the Pontiacs, Rag Apple Korndyke, and all the other good sons.

And remember too, that no other bull of the breed has ever been able to attain the records for milk and butter, and to produce record-making offspring as the sons and daughters and grandsons and granddaughters as that greatest of all Holstein sires, Pontiac Korndyke. One

As we have sold our business to the Equity Exchange Co., we ask all those who are in debt to us to call and settle their accounts not later than September 1st.

We have some Fall Fertilizer on hand. Call and leave your order before it is all gone.
